Mission Statement

The HRO Projects and Missions are to provide medical assistance, education, food, clothing, and a message of hope to the less fortunate around the world.

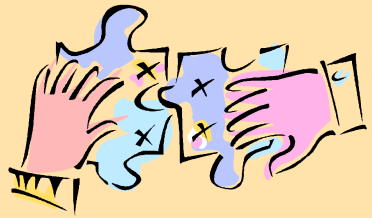

Objectives

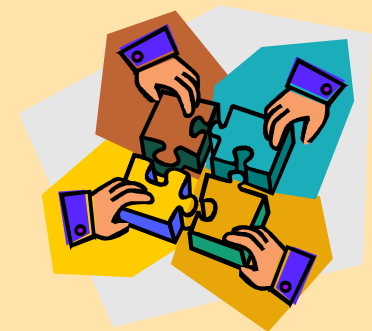

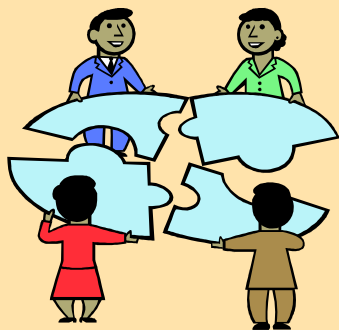

- Helping Local Programs such as H.E.L.P the Homeless ,The Women's Shelter, Neighbors Helping Neighbors from the Foodbank of Virginia Peninsula Program, and the JTC LifeChanging Center.
- Coordinating mission teams to different countries.
- Delivery of donations to the needy through the Denton Program Support.

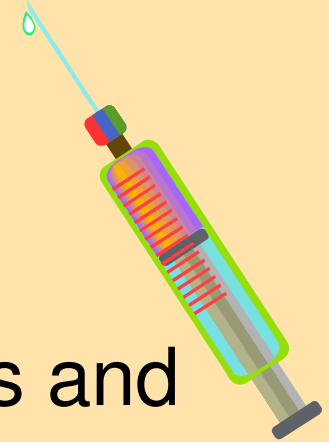

Objectives

The HRO was founded in 1994 as a non-profit, tax-exempt, international, and national relief organization that arranges a variety of support for the needy of the world.

The HRO's focus is upon those nations and those local areas in the most need of assistance in the form of food, medication, and the supporting technology for implementing these resources.

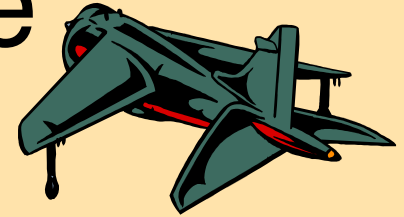

Implementation of the HRO Mission

Affidavits for recipient nations to acquire needed resources are first obtained through diplomatic channels here and abroad in order for recipient nations to sanction and support HRO activities in their respective countries.

Implementation of the HRO Mission

Then the Marines from Little Creek Amphibious Base Training Facility have provided the logistical support from Norfolk, for the movement of hospital beds, food, and medical material or supplies from the naval base at Norfolk to their international destinations. The Air Force also coordinates missions and airlifts through authorization of the Pentagon.

Human Relief Organization

The Human Relief Organization is dedicated to the relief of human suffering among the underprivileged people of the world. HRO's policies, programs, and practices are based on core values which declare that the need of humanity are best served by supporting those conditions and activates the integrate service to body, mind, and spirit.

By acting on such values, beneficiaries can be brought from a state of helpless dependence to one of personal and community independence and empowerment.

By virtue of its Charter, the HRO serves as a link to bring together those individuals, corporations, institutions, and other entities that are possessed of essential resources and good will so as to provide relief and empowerment to those who lack the fundamental necessities of life.
