

European Commission > Humanitarian Aid

About us

> What is ECHO?

- Presentation
- History & mandate
- Who is who?
- Annual report

> Humanitarian Actors

Policies & Evaluation

Aid in action

Funding

News & events

Media Library

Jobs

EU in the World

Info Point
External CooperationEUROPE
DIRECTClimate Action
Energy for a Changing World

Commission provides €2 million fast-track humanitarian aid for Haiti

05/09/2008 - The European Commission has today taken a fast-track funding decision for €2 million to provide humanitarian aid for victims of Tropical Storm Hanna in Haiti. The country, already suffering from the problems following the passage of the two previous tropical storms (Fay and Gustav) has been badly hit by Hanna flooding, particularly in the north. [\[Read more\]](#)

[\[Related: Hurricane Gustav\]](#)

Press releases

- Louis Michel calls for respect of international humanitarian law in Sri Lanka
- Georgia: Commission provides additional €5 million in humanitarian aid
- Somalia: Commission welcomes signing of agreement between the Transitional Government and the Alliance for the Re-liberation of Somalia
- Georgia: EU continues to deploy assistance to the conflict-stricken area

[\[Subscribe to RSS feed\]](#) [

Story from the field | Feature | Countries/regions

International Humanitarian Law Conference on 16 September

European Commissioner Louis Michel and European President Hans-Gert Pöttering, hosted a conference "Compliance with International Humanitarian Law: A Global Responsibility" at the European Parliament on 16 September. The programme featured a high level of discussion. For more information and photos, click here.